Final Chronicle as YPII Transitions

We have been working for the past several months to transition YPII from a "signature program" of Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA) into a core area of practice and mission. As we continue to keep you apprised of the process, there are several changes to share.

For more than 16 years, YPII has been a prominent source for training, trends, and materials for youth and adults working to give time, talent, and treasure for the common good. The program has built a strong local, state, national, and even international reputation as a youth philanthropy thought leader and resource.

YPII staff and founders are excited about the potential that comes with discontinuing the YPII brand and more seamlessly fusing youth philanthropy into the lifeblood of IPA.

Beginning March 1, YPII social media channels and this Chronicle e-newsletter will discontinue. However, subscribers can stay informed by following IPA on Twitter and Facebook for youth philanthropy news and resources. Existing resources on YPII’s website will remain available until content is integrated into the IPA website, which will be the new website for youth philanthropy information in Indiana.

IPA is excited to carry forward the torch of youth philanthropy in the same spirit of YPII and its founders. If you’d like to network with others on the topic of youth philanthropy, learn more about IPA’s Youth Philanthropy Partner Network. Thank you for being a loyal Chronicle subscriber.
